Suggest a Term Search Thesaurus

We classify our site records using an index called a Thesaurus. It is useful for finding out a bit more about what something has been recorded as, as some archaeological and architectural terms can contain jargon or technical language.

1. Click on Search in the main menu and then Search Thesaurus.
2. Use the dropdown to select which Thesaurus you would like to search. There are three: Monuments, Objects and Maritime.
3. Start typing your term to see suggestions from our list.
4. Select one of interest and click the Search Thesaurus button.
5. The definition for this term is shown.
6. You can choose to display a list of sites that are classified by this term or investigate a related term.

Understanding site records
